About Our Institution

Al-Ameen Law College is one of the flagship institutions of the Al-Ameen Educational Group, dedicated to providing quality legal education and fostering excellence in the legal profession. Since its inception, the institution has remained committed to developing competent, ethical, and socially responsible legal professionals capable of addressing the evolving challenges of the twenty-first century. By combining academic excellence with practical legal training, the college equips students with the knowledge, skills, and professional values necessary to excel in diverse fields of law.

The college has established strong collaborations with the judiciary, government institutions, legal practitioners, industry, and the community, creating a dynamic learning environment that bridges the gap between legal theory and practice. Through moot court competitions, trial advocacy programmes, legal aid initiatives, seminars, workshops, internships, and interactions with eminent legal professionals, students gain valuable practical exposure while enhancing their advocacy, research, analytical, and leadership skills. These initiatives prepare graduates to uphold the principles of justice, constitutional values, and professional ethics throughout their careers.

Al-Ameen Law College is distinguished by its diverse academic community, comprising aspiring advocates, judicial service aspirants, corporate professionals, and students from varied backgrounds. The institution promotes critical thinking, intellectual curiosity, and a spirit of service, encouraging students to understand the socio-economic and legal realities of society. It firmly believes that law is a powerful instrument of social transformation and inspires students to contribute meaningfully to the advancement of justice, equality, and the rule of law.

With an unwavering commitment to academic excellence, innovation, and community engagement, Al-Ameen Law College continues to nurture skilled and value-based legal professionals. The institution remains steadfast in its mission of producing graduates who are not only proficient in legal knowledge but also committed to integrity, humanity, and the pursuit of justice, making a lasting contribution to society and the legal profession.

About Al Ameen Moot Court Society

The Al-Ameen Moot Society is the official mooting body of Al-Ameen Law College, dedicated to promoting excellence in advocacy, legal research, drafting, and oral argumentation. Established with the vision of nurturing competent and confident advocates, the Society provides students with a platform to bridge the gap between theoretical legal education and practical courtroom experience. Through its various academic initiatives, the Society encourages students to develop critical thinking, persuasive advocacy, analytical reasoning, and professional ethics, all of which are essential attributes of a successful legal practitioner.

The Society regularly organises intra-collegiate and national-level moot court competitions, trial advocacy competitions, client counselling sessions, judgment writing competitions, and legal research workshops. These programmes are designed to expose students to contemporary legal issues while enhancing their abilities in memorial drafting, case analysis, statutory interpretation, and courtroom advocacy. In addition to competitions, the Society conducts orientation programmes, training sessions, and mentorship initiatives to equip budding mooters with the necessary skills and confidence to participate in prestigious national and international competitions.

The Al-Ameen Moot Society functions under the guidance of experienced faculty members and is led by a dedicated student committee committed to fostering a culture of academic excellence and professionalism. It strives to create an inclusive environment where every student, regardless of prior experience, has the opportunity to learn, participate, and excel. The Society also facilitates interaction with judges, academicians, senior advocates, and legal experts, enabling students to gain practical insights into the legal profession and contemporary judicial practices.

Driven by its commitment to excellence, the Al-Ameen Moot Society continues to uphold the highest standards of mooting and legal education. By encouraging rigorous legal research, effective advocacy, teamwork, and ethical practice, the Society plays a vital role in shaping future legal professionals who are equipped to uphold justice, contribute to the legal fraternity, and make meaningful contributions to society.

Message From Secretary

Sri. K.P. KAMARUDHEEN

Secretary

Al Ameen Educational Trust

It gives me immense pleasure to welcome all participants, judges, academicians, and distinguished guests to the National Moot Court Competition hosted by Al Ameen Law College, Kulappully, Shoranur. This prestigious event reflects our commitment to fostering academic excellence, ethical values, and professional competence among aspiring legal practitioners.

At Al Ameen Educational Trust, we believe that legal education extends beyond classrooms. Moot court competitions provide students with an invaluable opportunity to strengthen their advocacy, legal research, analytical reasoning, and courtroom skills while nurturing confidence, discipline, and professionalism. Such platforms inspire young minds to uphold the principles of justice, integrity, and the rule of law.

I congratulate the organisers for their dedicated efforts in making this competition a reality and extend my heartfelt best wishes to all participants. May this competition serve as a memorable learning experience and encourage every participant to strive for excellence in the noble profession of law.

Message from the Principal

Sri. Dr. AHAMED IQBAL V.T
Principal
Al Ameen Law College, O

It is with immense pleasure that I welcome all participants, judges, academicians, legal professionals, and distinguished guests to the National Moot Court Competition organized by Al Ameen Law College, Kulappully, Shoranur. This competition reflects our institution's unwavering commitment to promoting academic excellence and nurturing the next generation of legal professionals.

Legal education extends far beyond textbooks and classrooms. It requires the cultivation of analytical thinking, persuasive advocacy, ethical responsibility, and an unwavering commitment to justice. Moot court competitions provide students with a unique opportunity to apply legal principles to complex issues, refine their research and drafting skills, and develop the confidence required for courtroom advocacy. Such experiences play a vital role in shaping competent, responsible, and socially conscious members of the legal fraternity.

I congratulate the Moot Society, faculty members, student organisers, and volunteers for their dedication in making this event possible. I extend my heartfelt best wishes to all participants and hope this competition serves as a valuable learning experience, inspiring excellence, professionalism, and a lifelong commitment to the rule of law.

Message from the Vice Principal

Dr. SUNITHA P.N.

Vice Principal

Al Ameen Law College, Shoranur, Palakkad

It is my privilege to extend a warm welcome to all participants, judges, academicians, and distinguished guests to the National Moot Court Competition hosted by Al Ameen Law College, Kulappully, Shoranur. We are delighted to bring together talented law students from across the country for an event that celebrates advocacy, legal research, and the pursuit of excellence.

At Al Ameen Law College, we believe that a courtroom is not merely a place for presenting arguments but a platform for learning, self-discovery, and professional growth. Moot court competitions challenge students to think critically, communicate effectively, and uphold the highest standards of ethics and justice. Beyond competition, they foster collaboration, confidence, and lifelong friendships that enrich every participant's legal journey.

I sincerely appreciate the dedicated efforts of the Moot Court Society, ALC, the 10th Students Forum, our faculty members, and staff whose commitment and teamwork have made this event possible. I wish every participant a rewarding experience filled with meaningful learning, healthy competition, and lasting memories.
