ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Kanoria School of Law for Women (previously known as Rajasthan School of Law for Women) was established in 2018 in the Kanoria College campus, Jaipur. The college is affiliated with Dr Bhimrao Ambedkar Law University, Jaipur, and approved by the Bar Council of India. The institution is dedicated in developing new arenas of legal education that will help young females become qualified lawyers who will inculcate a profound and longlasting respect for human dignity, social justice, and fairness. High-quality legal education is provided by KSLW, eventually produces a new generation of judges, lawyers, leaders, and legislators. In addition to academic excellence, debates, co-curriculars, seminars, webinars, symposia, conferences, legal aid activities, cultural events, moot court competitions, internships, and other events, are organised by the institution every year which help students in their overall growth.

ABOUT RAJASTHAN STATE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

The Rajasthan State Human Rights Commission is one of the leading state commissions in the country. In a short span it has achieved many milestones in its mission for the protection and promotion of human rights. The main mandate of the State Commission is to function as a watchdog for human rights in the state. Under the Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993, human rights are defined in Section 2(d) and are those justiciable rights that can be enforced in a court of law in India. Most of the universal human rights as defined in the UN Charter are included and are being vigorously enforced. The Human Rights Commission is an autonomous, high-power human rights watch body that derives its authority from the Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993.

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

Kanoria School of Law for Women is organising “Parley 6.0: Debate Competition” on 8th – 9th September 2026, offering students a platform to engage with diverse social and legal issues through critical thinking and persuasive argumentation.

The competition aims to strengthen research, analytical reasoning, public speaking, and presentation skills, while fostering confidence, composure, and intellectual rigour. Parley Debate Competition encourages aspiring legal professionals to articulate their perspectives with clarity, logic, and conviction. It provides participants with an opportunity to explore contemporary issues, challenge perspectives, and develop well-reasoned positions, preparing future legal professionals to communicate and advocate their ideas with confidence.

THROWBACK

Over the years, Parley Debate Competition has emerged as a distinguished debating platform, fostering critical thinking, constitutional discourse, and meaningful dialogue among young legal minds.

- Parley 5.0: Debate Competition on 13th and 14th June, 2025, in association with the Rajasthan State Human Rights Commission. As compared to last year's record, the competition has yet again received a remarkable response from all over the country.
