The Annual Conference of the Association of Law Teachers in 2027 will take place at the School of Law, Queen Mary University of London. This year's theme is Legal Education in Transformation: Skills, Technology and Justice. The conference offers an opportunity for academics, professionals and practitioners to convene and exchange ideas, share successful or emergent practices, and provides opportunities to collaborate across the sector in order to prepare our learners for the future.

With 'change' being at the heart of this conference, we specifically invite proposals from speakers on the following:

- Access to justice, and educating students about access to justice;
- AI, Ethics and the Rule of Law;
- Clinical legal education and other experiential learning opportunities;
- Digital exclusion and inequality in access to justice;
- Generative AI and legal research, writing and assessment;
- Globalisation and the internationalisation of legal education;
- Interdisciplinary approaches to legal education;
- Legal skills;
- Legal technology, including AI and other forms of legal tech;
- The future of traditional legal education.

Abstracts (not exceeding 1800 characters) should be submitted at <https://www.qmul.ac.uk/alt-conference-2027/submissions/> by 9 December 2026.
