VICE-CHANCELLOR

Prof. Rajive Mohan Pant

"It gives me immense pleasure to welcome participants, judges and guests to the first Assam University National Moot Court Competition. Moot courts nurture the skills that define a great advocate: rigorous research, clarity of thought and the grace to argue with courage. I hope everyone has a magnificent experience in this event."

DEAN, DCSLS, ASSAM UNIVERSITY

Prof. Madhumita Dhar Sarkar

I am delighted to welcome all the participants and judges to the 1st Assam University National Moot Court Competition, 2026 organised by the Department of Law. A Moot Court Competition is a festival of legal intellect, celebrating law and justice with vigour. I extend my best wishes to all the participating teams and hope it becomes a great learning experience for them.

HEAD OF DEPARTMENT

Chairperson, MCS

Prof. Partha Pratim Paul

It is my distinct privilege to welcome all esteemed judges, distinguished guests, and brilliant participants to the 1st Assam University National Moot Court Competition. On behalf of the Department of Law, Assam University, we are honored to host future legal luminaries from across the nation. We have worked diligently to ensure an experience that is intellectually rigorous and warmly hospitable. May this forum inspire critical inquiry, sharpen advocacy, and uphold justice. I wish every participating team enriching engagements and success.

Founding Head of Department

Prof. Rashmi Ranjan Mishra

Behind every successful moot is a team that believes in it. Having nurtured this department from its very inception, witnessing our inaugural National Moot Court Competition unfold fills me with immense pride. We have dedicated ourselves to ensuring an environment that is intellectually rigorous and professionally exemplary. May this platform inspire rigorous legal inquiry, refine your art of advocacy, and cultivate enduring institutional fellowship. I warmly welcome you all and wish every team a rewarding competition

FACULTY CONVENOR, MCS

Dr. Dristirupa Patgiri

On behalf of the Moot Court Society, it is an honor to welcome participants, esteemed judges, and guests to our 1st National Moot Court Competition. Months of meticulous planning and shared dedication have brought this academic forum to life. We have strived to create a platform that is intellectually rigorous, fostering keen analysis, ethical advocacy, and collaborative learning. May the courtroom exchanges challenge your perspectives and sharpen your craft. I wish all the teams an enriching and memorable experience.

FACULTY CO-CONVENOR, MCS

Dr. Sandeep Kumar Suman

It is a privilege to welcome each one of you to the 1st Assam University National Moot Court Competition. A successful moot represents not just legal debate, but resilience, research, and relentless preparation. Alongside our dedicated team, we have endeavored to cultivate an intellectually demanding yet deeply collaborative atmosphere. May these rounds push your analytical boundaries, instill courtroom composure, and celebrate the spirit of fair competition. Wishing all participating teams an inspiring and rewarding journey ahead

About the University

Nestled amidst the lush, rolling landscape of Dargakona, Assam University stands as a beacon of academic rigor and cultural heritage in Northeast India. Established by an Act of Parliament in 1989, this premier Central University has steadily evolved into a powerhouse of transformative education, research, and community empowerment.

Serving as a vibrant confluence for learners from across India and neighboring nations, the University offers a dynamic, multidisciplinary academic ecosystem. With comprehensive programs spanning the sciences, humanities, engineering, management, and law, Assam University is dedicated to nurturing the next generation of leaders, innovators, and changemakers.

Our steadfast commitment to institutional growth and academic excellence is continually recognized on the national stage. In 2025, Assam University proudly secured the 97th position in the prestigious National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF), an endorsement of our unrelenting focus on educational quality, faculty excellence, and impactful research. Beyond academics, the University is deeply invested in environmental stewardship. Our verdant, eco-conscious campus and proactive sustainability initiatives have earned the institution an esteemed 11th rank in the National Green University Rankings for 2026.

Recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) and highly accredited for its vital research contributions, Assam University continues to bridge regional imperatives with global standards. By partnering with us, sponsors align with a visionary institution that seamlessly combines intellectual scholarship with a profound commitment to ecological sustainability and community engagement, values that firmly cement its place among India's most respected seats of higher learning.

Department of Law

In the year 2004, the Department of Law, under the aegis of the School of Social Sciences, was established in the university. The department embarked on its journey with a modest beginning – a single room and two dedicated faculty members. Currently, after two decades of unwavering commitment, it stands tall as a premier institution, shaping the legal minds of tomorrow.

The department's legacy is etched in its pioneering spirit. It is one of the earliest departments of law in the region to offer the integrated B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) program, providing a comprehensive legal education that bridges the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application. The department's commitment to academic excellence is further exemplified by its LL.M. and Ph.D. programmes which cater to the advanced needs of legal scholars and researchers.

The department's influence extends far beyond the classrooms as its alumni continue to make significant contributions to the society. They serve in esteemed positions within the judiciary, as practicing advocates, academicians, in renowned corporate law firms and international organizations. Their success stories are a testament to the department's dedication to nurturing legal minds of the highest caliber.

As the department continues to evolve, it remains steadfast in its mission to provide quality legal education and research. It is committed to fostering a vibrant academic community that encourages critical thinking, innovation, and social justice. With its rich history and bright future, the Department of Law, Assam University, Silchar is poised to play a pivotal role in shaping the legal landscape of India and beyond.

The Moot Court Society

A dynamic, student-driven body, the Moot Court Society at the Department of Law, Assam University, is dedicated to advancing the art of legal advocacy. Comprising a formidable network of 350 dedicated student members, the committee stands as one of the most vibrant and active academic organizations on the University campus. Established with the core mandate to organize moot courts, mock trials, and allied clinical programs, the Society serves as a vital bridge between classroom theory and courtroom practice.

To cultivate these critical skills, the Society consistently translates its vision into action by conducting numerous intra-institutional competitions and intensive legal boot camps. These initiatives foster a rich ecosystem of peer mentorship, collaborative research, and spirited debate, providing students with rigorous, hands-on training in precise drafting and persuasive oral argumentation.

The impact of this comprehensive preparation is evident far beyond the campus: our student members have successfully represented the University on the national stage, securing victories and accolades at several prestigious nationwide moot court competitions. By operating at such a high caliber and significant scale, the Society empowers a broad community of aspiring legal professionals to hone their litigation skills, build confidence, and emerge as practice-ready advocates for the modern legal landscape.

About the Competition

A moot court competition is an integral part of legal training in an undergraduate law degree course. It aims to prepare budding lawyers to engage with real-world disputes in a simulated courtroom setting. Organisation of such a competition at the national level brings widespread recognition and collaboration.

The Moot Court Society, Department of Law, Assam University, Silchar is going to organise its maiden National Level Moot Court Competition on 27–28 November 2026. Being a premier national institution of education of the Barak Valley, Assam the competition is bound to attract significance national interest.

To be held at Assam University, Silchar campus, this inaugural national moot court competition will bring together participating teams from an estimated 10 to 12 states across India, a gathering of some of the country's most promising young legal minds for two days of rigorous written and oral advocacy. As the first competition of its kind hosted by the Department of Law, it represents a significant step in positioning Assam University, and the wider North-Eastern legal fraternity, on the national mooting map.
