Call for applications

Master's degree (LLM) in Sexual and Reproductive Rights in Africa

This two-year programme is offered as a blended learning course comprising of online interaction and residential block-weeks in Pretoria. Two contact sessions will be scheduled every year (four contact sessions over the period of two years).

APPLICATION DEADLINE:
13 November 2026

Course duration:
JANUARY 2027 – DECEMBER 2028

LLM (SRRA) - Eligibility criteria

- A degree allowing access to the legal profession
- At least a 4-year honours degree in an academic discipline relevant to sexual and reproductive rights in African; or any other qualification in an academic discipline relevant to sexual and reproductive rights in African that allows for admission to a master's programme at the institution where the undergraduate qualification was obtained

Applicants must have excellent academic credentials and demonstrate human rights experience or interest. A maximum of fifteen students will be accepted for the 2027/20278academic year.

APPLY ONLINE:
www.up.ac.za/online-application

2026 cost estimation
Southern African students – R 38 000
Non-Southern African students – R56 000

UP TO 15 FULL SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE FOR AFRICAN CITIZENS

Centre for Human Rights
Faculty of Law, University of Pretoria
www.chr.up.ac.za

UNIVERSITEIT VAN PRETORIA
UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA
YUNIBESITHI YA PRETORIA

Centre for Human Rights
UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA